

AN IMMENSE STOCK OF FALL GOODS.

I have just returned from the Cincinnati market where I bought extensively for the trade of Adair and adjoining Counties. I am too busy to specify, but my shelves are now full of Fall Dress Goods and the ladies are invited to call and look through. I am sure I can please you.

Whatever You Need

Can be found at my store, hence if you do not see what you want ask for it, and you will be accommodated. My salesmen are at all times ready to wait upon customers.

Clothing for Men and Boys

I have perhaps the largest stock clothing ever offered to this trade. I can furnish any kind of suit you may want. If a cheap suit is your desire, I have it, if you want a fine suit you can be supplied.

The Finest and Best Fitting Shoes

In this department you will see the most elegant lines, both for Ladies and Gentlemen ever presented to this market. All I ask is, come in, I am sure I can please you.

It is understood that I handle all the staples.

I am in earnest about one matter. I want the people to call and see, then tell their friends of my GREAT BARGAIN STORE.

dollars, but at the rate it is going at now it will not last long.

Well the election is rapidly approaching. And I cannot but wonder if it is possible that there is enough people in this district who are willing to disgrace their country and bring the wrath of God upon themselves and their children by electing a low, self-convicted murderer to represent them in Congress. There is no man in this whole Commonwealth that has one iota of mind but that knows beyond doubt that Caleb Powers is guilty of concocting, aiding and abetting, and assisting in the perpetration of one of the most heinous, dastardly, cowardly crimes that ever blackened the name of a state or nation. He cried out that he was being persecuted and could not get a fair trial while the democrats were in power, and this after he had been convicted time and again by republican as well as by democratic juries. To prove that he was not being persecuted we elected a governor who was willing to stoop low enough to turn loose a set of hoodlums on the state to advance his party interests. Caleb could certainly have had a fair trial now! This partisan governor could have appointed a partisan special judge to have tried this case; this partisan judge could have selected a partisan jury and have given partisan rulings and instructions during the trial. But no, he was like the Irishman. It was a fair trial that he was afraid of. He knew that he was guilty and believed that it would be hard to get a jury of twelve but what there would be at least one or two honest men on it. And he knew that his guilt was so plainly apparent that he could not hope for an acquittal. So he accepted a pardon from little Custis, I should have said Governor Wilson, just exactly like the one he had tucked down in his pocket signed by Billie Taylor on the time he attempted to get out of the State in disguise even before he was accused of complicity in this crime. This above all else proved his guilt. And now fellow voters if we should condescend to send such a man to Congress do you suppose that Congressmen from other States even though they be republicans would associate with him? It would be just the same as though we had no Congressman. And then I am sure that God would punish the people of the district just like He did in olden times when the people were represented by Ahaz, a man of the Powers type. So please read your Bibles, study this question, and then when you go to the poles vote for a good clean man, one who has proven himself to be worthy of your vote, one who is able and fit to associate with the best. Then when you are called before that Great and Righteous Judge to give an account of your vote you can hear him say in loving tones, "Well done."

And now in conclusion let me ask that you read the following anyway before you vote: Gal. 5-21; Rev. 21-8; Rev. 22-15. Then remember that when you vote for Caleb Powers you indorse him and his record; that you become a party to the vice which he is the author of. Consider well, then vote.
